Information required for filing
Australian design applications

Essential information

- A least one set of drawings from which copies may be made

- The name of the product for which registration is required

- The full name of each designer

- The name and address of each applicant

- If Convention priority is claimed, the country, application date and application number for each priority application

- To allow us to complete a statement of newness and distinctiveness, the identity of any particular novel features of the design

Please note:

- A certified copy of each priority application is required if examination is requested

- Although multiple designs may be included in a single application we recommend the filing of multiple applications since there is no saving in fees and each design is registered and renewed separately

- A request for examination must be filed and a design certified before it may be enforced

- Designs are registered and published typically within about 2-6 months

- There is no mechanism to prevent publication

- No Power of Attorney or Authorisation of Agent is required

- No forms are required to be signed by an applicant
