

Trade mark process in Australia and New Zealand

The time from application to registration is approximately 9-12 months in Australia and 7-10 months in New Zealand, if no objections encountered. FB Rice will be in contact with you at key stages to report on developments and status of your application.